CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

made as of June 22, 2026 between

MANDALENA LEWIS (the “Representative Plaintiff”)

- and -

WESTJET AIRLINES LTD. (the “Defendant”)

RECITALS:

WHEREAS the Representative Plaintiff commenced a proposed class proceeding on April 4, 2016, which was certified as a class proceeding by the British Columbia Court of Appeal on April 19, 2022 (reversing in part the Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, dated February 12, 2021) bearing Vancouver Registry No. S-162957 (the “Action”);

WHEREAS the Action was certified on behalf of a class consisting of all current and former female flight attendants employed by the Defendant during the period from April 4, 2014 to February 28, 2021 (the “Class Period”), and any persons who validly opted out (the “Class”);

WHEREAS the Representative Plaintiff alleges that the Defendant breached the employment contracts of female flight attendants employed during the Class Period by failing to implement and enforce an alleged contractual term to create and maintain a workplace free from harassment (the “Anti-Harassment Promise”);

WHEREAS the Representative Plaintiff alleges that the Anti-Harassment Promise was a term of the Class Members’ employment contracts and included commitments that the Defendant would, among other things, proactively prevent harassment, require employees to comply with a Code of Conduct, properly investigate and respond to complaints of harassment, and take appropriate remedial action where necessary;

WHEREAS the Representative Plaintiff seeks relief on behalf of the Class in respect of the Defendant’s alleged breaches of contract in the manner set out in the Fresh as Amended Notice of Civil Claim filed in the Action on June 17, 2025;

WHEREAS the Defendant denies all of the Representative Plaintiff’s allegations, the allegations have not been proven in court, and the execution of this Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission of liability, wrongdoing, unlawful conduct, or fault of any kind by the Defendant;

WHEREAS Notice of Certification of this Action was published to Class Members on or about April 9, 2024 in accordance with the Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, dated April 9, 2024, advising Class Members of their right to opt out of the Action by June 8, 2024, and that any Class Member who did not opt out would be bound by the final judgment of the Court in this Action;

WHEREAS following certification, the Parties engaged in extensive litigation, including documentary production, examinations for discovery, the exchange of expert evidence, and preparation for a common issues trial, and the Action was actively contested at every stage;

WHEREAS the Parties acknowledge that the Action involves complex and novel legal and evidentiary issues, that the outcome of a trial and any appeals is uncertain, and that continued litigation would be costly and time-consuming;

WHEREAS the Parties have reached an agreement to resolve the claims of the Representative Plaintiff and of the Class Members, as memorialized in this settlement agreement (the "Agreement" or "Settlement Agreement") which they believe is fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the Class Members;

WHEREAS notwithstanding its belief that it has defences on the merits, the Defendant has agreed to enter into this Settlement Agreement in order to avoid the further expense, inconvenience, and distraction of protracted litigation, and to achieve a final resolution of the claims asserted in the Action, subject to the terms of this Agreement;

WHEREAS this Agreement was entered into following extensive arm's length discussions and negotiations between Class Counsel and Defense Counsel for the Defendant in December, 2025, January, and February 2026; and through a mediation with the Parties conducted by Mediator Mr. Stephen Kelleher, K.C. in December, 2025;

WHEREAS the Settlement includes both monetary relief and a non-monetary component pursuant to which, following approval, the Defendant will conduct a workplace assessment focused on harassment reporting mechanisms and barriers to reporting;

AND WHEREAS in order for the Agreement be effective, the Agreement must be approved pursuant to section 35 of the Class Proceedings Act R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 50;

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

discharges the Releasees from the Released Claims, as defined and approved by the Court, subject to the limitations and carve-outs set out in this Section 7.

The Parties agree that, whether or not this Settlement Agreement is finally approved or is terminated in accordance with its terms, this Settlement Agreement and anything contained herein, and any and all negotiations, documents, discussions, and the Action associated with this Settlement Agreement, and any action taken to carry out this Settlement Agreement, shall not be deemed, construed, or interpreted to be an admission of any violation of any statute, regulation or law, breach of contract or tariff, or of any wrongdoing or liability by the Defendant, or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations made in the Action, or in any other pleading filed by the Representative Plaintiff.

8.2 Use of Settlement Agreement. The Parties further agree that, whether or not this Settlement Agreement is finally approved or is terminated, this Settlement Agreement, and any negotiations, documents, and discussions associated with it shall not be referred to, offered as evidence or received in evidence in any pending or future civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, except:

- (a) in a proceeding to seek Court approval of this Settlement Agreement;
- (b) to defend against the assertion of Released Claims; or
- (c) as otherwise required or permitted by law, including in connection with criminal, regulatory, or disciplinary proceedings.

8.3 Confidentiality. Class Counsel or anyone currently or hereafter employed by or a partner with Class Counsel shall not divulge to anyone for any purpose any information obtained in the course of the Action on a confidential basis or the negotiation and preparation of this Settlement Agreement, except to the extent that such information:

- (a) was, is, or becomes publicly available other than through a breach of this Agreement;
- (b) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation, professional obligation, or Court order; or
- (c) is disclosed for the purposes of administering or enforcing this Settlement Agreement.

Section 9 Termination of Settlement Agreement

9.1 Termination. The Parties expressly reserve all their respective rights and may terminate this Settlement Agreement in the event that:

- (a) the Court declines to approve this Settlement Agreement or approves it in a materially modified form; or
- (b) the Settlement Approval Order does not become a Final Order.

9.2 For greater certainty, any order, ruling or determination of the Court with respect to Class Counsel Fees, any Honorarium, or the Distribution Protocol shall not be deemed to be a material modification of this Settlement Agreement and shall not constitute any basis for the termination of this Settlement Agreement.

- 9.3 Effect of Termination. If this Settlement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.1, or if approval of any material provision is reversed or altered on appeal, then:
- (a) this Settlement Agreement shall become null and void and shall have no further force or effect except as provided for in Section 9.4 (Survival);
 - (b) the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Action immediately prior to reaching the settlement; and
 - (c) documents or communications related to the settlement (including the minutes of settlement, and this Settlement Agreement) shall have no force or effect, with all applicable privilege protections maintained, and not be admissible in evidence for any purpose in the Action or in any other proceeding.
- 9.4 Survival. If this Settlement Agreement is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, the provisions of Sections 8, 9, and 12.2 together with the definitions and Schedules applicable to the interpretation of those Sections, shall survive the termination and continue in full force and effect. All other provisions of this Settlement Agreement and all other obligations arising hereunder shall immediately cease.

- (a) responding to inquiries from Class Members;
 - (b) receiving and maintaining Class Member correspondence regarding objections to the Settlement;
 - (c) posting Notice on Class Counsel's website; and
 - (e) reporting to the Court on the outcome of the administration of the Distribution Protocol.
- 10.2 Responsibilities of the Claims Administrator. The Claims Administrator will be responsible for administering the Settlement, including the Distribution Protocol; and providing any sworn affidavits detailing the administration of the claims. The reasonable costs of such third-party administration shall be paid as an Administration Cost from the Settlement Amount.

- 10.3 Proof of Class Membership. In accordance with the Distribution Protocol, eligibility for participation in the Settlement and class membership shall be established through submission of a simplified claim form approved by the Court.
- 10.4 Court Supervision. To the extent not otherwise provided for in this Settlement Agreement, the mechanics of the implementation and administration of this Settlement Agreement shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the Court if the Parties are unable to agree. The Court may amend the Distribution Protocol, and any such amendment shall not constitute a basis for the termination of this Settlement Agreement. Any payments made under the Distribution Protocol shall in no way constitute an admission of liability on the part of the Defendant or any Releasee.

Section 11 Notices to the Class Members

- 11.1 Class Members shall be given a Notice of Proposed Settlement, which shall include notice of:
- (a) the main terms of proposed Settlement Agreement, and information about how to access the full Settlement Agreement;
 - (b) the application to approve this Settlement Agreement; and
 - (c) the application to approve Class Counsel Fees, disbursements, and any Honorarium to the Representative Plaintiff.

- 11.3 The Notice of Proposed Settlement shall be disseminated in English in the following manner:

 - (b) posted on Class Counsel's website.
- 11.4 All out-of-pocket costs associated with the publication of the Notice of Proposed Settlement shall be paid from the Settlement Amount.

- 11.5 The Defendant shall not have any responsibility for the costs of the Notice of Proposed Settlement. If any court requires that additional notice be published, the Parties agree that the costs shall be paid from the Settlement Amount.
- 11.6 After this Settlement Agreement is approved by the Court, the parties shall prepare a short Notice of Settlement Approval and Claims Process outlining the terms of the approval, including the Claim Form and instructions on how claims are to be submitted, substantially in the form attached as Schedule "E". The Notice of Settlement Approval and Claims Process shall be distributed in accordance with this Section 11.

Section 12 Opt-Outs

- 12.1 Upon the Settlement Approval Order becoming a Final Order, any Class Member who did not opt out of the Action on or before June 8, 2024 (the expiration of the Opt-Out Deadline) shall be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the release of the Released Claims, as approved by the Court.
- 12.2 With respect to any Class Member who has validly opted out from the Action, this Settlement Agreement shall have no effect on that person's rights, and the Defendant reserves all of its legal rights and defences in relation to any such Class Member.

Section 13 Defendant Workplace Assessment

- 13.1 After the Settlement Approval Order has become a Final Order, the Defendant will retain an independent and qualified third party consultant of its own choosing to conduct and complete a workplace assessment with respect to:

 - b. the extent of underreporting; and
 - c. how reporting and response systems can be made more effective
- (the "Workplace Assessment").
- 13.2 The results of the Workplace Assessment will be reported to the Defendant, and the Defendant shall provide a summary of the assessment findings to employees.

SCHEDULE "A" – NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT APPROVAL AND SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING

Your legal rights may be affected.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CURRENT AND FORMER WESTJET FEMALE FLIGHT ATTENDANTS

If you worked as a flight attendant for Westjet Airlines Ltd. during the period April 4, 2014 and February 28, 2021 (the "Class Period"), you may be affected by a proposed class action settlement that has been reached in LEWIS v. WESTJET AIRLINES LTD., Supreme Court of British Columbia, Court File No. S-162957 (the "Class Action").

The proposed settlement of the Class Action must be approved by the Court to become legally binding. The proposed settlement is a compromise of disputed claims and is not an admission of liability or wrongdoing or fault by Westjet.

A copy of the Notice of Certification is also attached for reference.

A hearing to determine if the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Class Members ("Approval Hearing") has been set for May 7 and 8, 2026 at 10 a.m. PT at the Supreme Court of British Columbia in Vancouver, BC (address below).

The Plaintiff who filed the lawsuit on behalf of the Class Members is Mandalena Lewis (called the "Representative Plaintiff").

The lawyers for the Class are JFK LAW LLP ("Class Counsel").

WHAT IS THE CLASS ACTION ABOUT?

The claim alleges Westjet systemically breached the employment contracts of female flight attendants who were employed at Westjet mainline between April 4, 2014 and February 28, 2021 by failing to implement and enforce an alleged contractual term to create and maintain a workplace free from harassment (the "Anti-Harassment Promise").

Westjet denies the allegations. The allegations have not been proven in court, and the proposed settlement does not include any admission of liability by Westjet.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE CONDUCT OF THE PROCEEDING

The Class Action was commenced in 2016. In December 2017, the Supreme Court of British Columbia dismissed WestJet's application to strike the claim. WestJet's appeal of that decision was dismissed by the British Columbia Court of Appeal in February 2019, and its application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada was dismissed in July 2019.

In February 2021, the Representative Plaintiff's certification application was dismissed at first instance. That decision was appealed, and in April 2022 the British Columbia Court of Appeal allowed the appeal and certified the proceeding as a class action.

Following certification, the parties engaged in extensive procedural steps, including applications relating to the scope of the Class Period, document production, pleadings amendments, and notice to the Class. There has been a significant amount of discovery evidence and the parties conducted lengthy examinations for discovery, including multi-day examinations of WestJet witnesses and the Representative Plaintiff.

The parties participated in a mediation in December 2025. Following mediation, additional procedural steps were taken in preparation for trial, including applications for interprovincial subpoenas and remote attendance in January 2026. The litigation also involved extensive expert evidence.

The proposed settlement was reached after these extensive steps had been completed and reflects the risks, costs, and uncertainties of continued litigation for both sides. The Plaintiff is asking the Court to approve the proposed settlement agreement reached between the parties.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT CLASS?

The settlement class includes current and former female flight attendants employed by WestJet Airlines Ltd. at any point during the period of April 4, 2014 to February 28, 2021 who did not opt out of the Class Action by the expiry of the Opt-Out deadline on June 8, 2024.

WHAT ARE THE TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

A copy of the executed settlement agreement is attached to this Notice, and is subject to Court approval. The key terms of the proposed settlement are as follows:

Monetary Settlement

- WestJet will pay a settlement in the global amount of $4.5 million CAD, inclusive of class member compensation, Class Counsel fees, disbursements, applicable taxes, and an honorarium for the Representative Plaintiff. (see Section 3 of the Settlement Agreement)

- The net settlement amount, after Court-approved deductions, will be distributed equally to eligible Class Members in accordance with a Court-approved distribution protocol. (see Schedule C of the Settlement Agreement)
- Under the distribution protocol class members have three months to submit a claim for compensation.
- Any unclaimed amounts after the expiry period will be donated to the BC Law Foundation.

Non-Monetary Settlement

- Following approval of the settlement, Westjet has agreed to conduct a workplace assessment focused on harassment reporting mechanisms and barriers to reporting.
- The assessment will be conducted by an independent qualified professional of Westjet's choosing. The results of the Workplace Assessment will be reported to the Defendant, and the Defendant shall provide a summary of the assessment findings to employees.

Release and Dismissal Terms

- In consideration of the settlement terms, Class Members who did not opt out agree to release the Releasees (as defined in Section 1.22 of the Settlement Agreement) from the Released Claims (as defined in Section 1.21 of the Settlement Agreement).
- The release preserves the right of Class Members to pursue any claims against any natural persons brought in respect of alleged incidents of sexual assault, sexual battery, or other sexual misconduct (as described in Section 7.2 of the Settlement Agreement).

CAN I MAKE A CLAIM NOW?

No. Claims cannot be submitted unless and until the settlement is approved by the Court. If the settlement is approved, further notice will be issued explaining:

- who is eligible to make a claim;
- how to submit a claim;
- applicable deadlines; and

- how settlement funds will be distributed.

WHEN IS THE SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the class.

- Date: May 7 and 8, 2026 (the Class will be notified if these dates change)
- Location: Vancouver Law Courts, 800 Smithe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia

WHAT ARE THE LEGAL FEE ARRANGEMENTS?

Under the terms of their retainer agreement with the Representative Plaintiff, Class Counsel will seek approval of a legal fee of 35% of the global settlement amount, plus disbursements, applicable taxes, and administration expenses. Class Counsel will also seek an honorarium payment of $20,000 for the Representative Plaintiff.

Class Counsel fees, disbursements and any payments to the Representative Plaintiff are also subject to Court approval to ensure fairness.

WHAT IF I WANT TO OBJECT TO THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OR LEGAL FEE?

Class Members have the right to object to the approval of the proposed settlement agreement and distribution protocol, Class Counsel fees, disbursements, administration expenses or the payment of an honorarium to the Representative Plaintiff. If you wish to object, you must provide a letter or written objection to Class Counsel by no later than March 23, 2026.

The following information must be included in your objection delivered to Class Counsel:

- The objector's full name, current mailing address, telephone number and email address;
